

The opportunity to work with Nicola Manganello
to create your perfect home.

Inspired by the refined grandeur of Cumberland Foreside's historic coastal estates. Softened by the casual comfort of vintage, cottage-style details. Built with every luxury and convenience of modern family life by a proven team of artists, artisans and professionals that share your dream. Whether you are drawn to one of Nicola's initial sketches, know of a historic home that could be moved and renovated or have always admired one of the area's old and elegant houses and wished for one like it—Nicola and her team will make your ideal house a reality on Maeve's Way. Every detail will be attended to by skilled experts attentive to your needs and invested in this unique community.
